

MCWR in Collaboration with Dr Ambedkar International Centre (DAIC)*

*A Centre of Excellence under Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Government of India.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Conservation and Management of Water Bodies: Ambedkar and Beyond

Timeline

- June 22, 2025 – Last date to submit articles for Samajik Nyay Sandesh, a peer-reviewed bilingual Journal with ISSN No.
- June 23–30, 2025 – Editorial review & selection
- July 11, 2025 – Release of the Journal during Yamuna Manthan Conference

Subthemes

- Ambedkar & Water
Water as a tool for social justice and conservation in Ambedkar's vision.

- History & Culture
Cultural, religious, and historical perspectives on water bodies.

- Technology & Innovation
Smart, AI-based solutions for water management.

- Case Studies
Examples of successful restoration and community initiatives.

- Policy & Community
Governance, public involvement, and future planning.

Articles (1500–3000 words) must be original, non-promotional, and properly referenced. Include high-resolution images (500+ DPI) if needed. Add a short author bio (max 65 words) with a photo. Submissions accepted only via the official Google Form by June 22, 2025.

For queries:

MCWR Contacts

Sanjeev Roy
- sanjeev.roy@mcwr.org

Maneesh Prasad
- maneesh.prasad@mcwr.org

DAIC Contact

Pooja Khanna
(Nodal Officer, DAIC)
- rapooja.daic@gmail.com

Connect with MCWR:

Website: www.mcwr.org

Instagram: @mcwr_org

Twitter/X: @Council_River

Facebook: /council.river

LinkedIn: /mcwr