REPORT

SPECIAL LECTURE BY DR. SUNDER RAM KORIVI

Subject: Report on the Special Lecture by Dr. Sunder Ram Korivi on “Financial Inclusion and the BFSI Landscape”

1. The Dr. Ambedkar International Centre hosted a Special Lecture on “Financial Inclusion and the BFSI Landscape,” delivered by Dr. Sunder Ram Korivi on May 30, 2025, from 4:00 PM to 5:30 PM at Samrasta Hall, DAIC.
2. Dr. Korivi is a distinguished academic in the fields of finance, capital markets, and regulatory education. He is the Founding Dean and former SEBI SSIR Chair Professor at the National Institute of Securities Markets (NISM). Currently, he serves as Adjunct Faculty at the Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs (IICA), New Delhi.
3. Dr. Korivi began the lecture with a sectoral overview of the Banking, Financial Services, and Insurance (BFSI) landscape in India. He then highlighted key government initiatives aimed at promoting financial inclusion among lower-income groups. Addressing the middle class, he offered a word of caution on navigating financial products wisely. He concluded by emphasizing the need to align consumer needs with market offerings to bridge persistent service gaps.
4. The lecture was attended by undergraduate and postgraduate students, faculty members, and working professionals. The session witnessed active engagement during the Q&A, with attendees appreciating Dr. Korivi’s insights, clarity, and generosity of time.
5. The event concluded with refreshments served to all participants in the VIP Dining Area, allowing for informal interactions and continued discussion.
